

Sermons That Stick

darren
LaCroix

GREAT FOR:

Pastor & Leadership Events, Pastor Conferences

“In 2001, Darren LaCroix won the ‘best speaker in the word’ competition and ever since has been training professional speakers on how to improve their craft. We had Darren teach on how to tell better stories to a group of pastors at our church planting conference and they loved him and felt equipped to tell more powerful, compelling stories.”

Vince Antonucci, Pastor, Verve Church

ABOUT DARREN LACROIX

His 20+ years keynoting experience coupled with the guidance given to him by outstanding coaches, Darren helps executives and managers around the world save time and avoid frustration when looking to leave their own indelible mark on their audience.

Darren grew up in a conservative Catholic family in the suburbs of Boston. Though he had believed in God, in 2014 he got baptized and re-committed his life to Jesus. He now feels called to teach pastors and church leaders world-class storytelling techniques to dramatically improve their impact.

Darren is the only speaker in the world who is an Accredited Speaker, Certified Speaking Professional and a World Champion of Public Speaking. He is also the author of two books: Laugh & Get Rich and The Speaker's Edge.

Darren shows busy pastors how to have a more lasting impact through the power of well-told stories.

Do you want to just give a sermon? Or actually be heard?

Anyone can stand up and give a sermon, but how do you deliver a message that stands out in the audience's mind? How can you create and deliver a sermon that is truly unforgettable?

With the right process, you can develop and convey a message that really impacts lives, whether you speak to one person sitting across from you in your office, twenty people attending class, or hundreds in your congregation. If you are going to spend time and energy putting together a sermon, why not follow a world-class process that will help you get better results and make your message stick?

Great communicators are great storytellers.

Jesus used parables. Do you? Better yet, do you structure and deliver your stories in a way that elicits emotion? That is what makes them memorable. Darren LaCroix struggled as a presenter for seven years. In fact, in 1992 he bombed miserably in a Boston comedy club. Nine years later he out spoke 25,000 contestants to become the World Champion of Public Speaking. What made the difference? Darren's coach taught him little known, world-class storytelling techniques.

Darren has developed a world-class process that can help you transform your sermons and church teachings in a way that moves your listeners to take action. These are proven techniques and tools that are easy to implement and instantly effective. Even the most experienced leaders will be impressed how these world-class, practical insights will significantly improve their effectiveness.
